

By the Petition of Samuel Abbott of Dorchester County, it appears that he was fined by the County Court of said County, at October Term 1827 the sum of sixteen dollars in each of two several cases, for selling liquor without License. The petitioner states that his violation of the Law was occasioned by ignorance, and he, therefore prays for a remission of the said fine; and the Court having recommended their remission, we do hereby remit the same.

By the Petition of Joseph Owens and Samuel Dwyer, accompanied by a transcript from the Record of Prince Georges County Court, it appears, that they had entered into recognizance, in the usual form, for the appearance of Sam Dwyer before Prince Georges County Court, at October Term 1826, to answer for assaulting and beating Robert Hordy, and that the said recognizance has been entered perfected.

The Petitioner states that the said Dwyer did attend the said Court, agreeably to the tenor of said recognizance, but that through inadvertence or some other cause the Clerk did not hear him and the recognizance was entered perfected; and this statement is verified by the Oath of Thomas Baldwin. The petitioner, therefore, prays to be released from the said forfeiture, and the Court having recommended its remission, we do hereby remit the same.
