

in behalf of the said Manufacturing Company accompanied by a transcript from the books of said County Court appearing that the said Manufacturing Company was fined by the said Court at October Term 1827, the sum of one hundred dollars for being in possession of certain Licens. The Justice of the Peace who obtained said License, named a License in behalf of said Company, to retail Dry Goods, as required by Law, but that owing to forgetfulness he neglected to renew the said License sometime previous, the imposition of the said fine, and that being informed of the said Court being made he appeared in Court as though the said Company had been guilty. He therefore prayed the release from the said fine; but the Court having recommended the said Executive Clemency do hereby remit the said fine.
