

By the Petition of Lawrence Everitt of Queen Anne's County, it appears, that, being presented by the Grand Jury of the said County, for an assault and Battery on John Soloway, he entered into recognizance in the penalty of fifty dollars for his appearance to answer said charge, and that the said recognizance has been forfeited. The Petitioner states that from ignorance or forgetfulness, he neglected to attend, and consequently his recognizance was forfeited, that he afterwards attended and was acquitted of the said charge. He therefore prays to be released from the said forfeiture. And the Court, having recommended a compliance with his prayer, we do hereby remit the same.
