

By the petition of James Citizens of Prince Georges County, accompanied by a transcript from the records of the County Court of said County, happening that James Collins was fined by the said Court at October Term 1828, in five several cases, the sum of sixteen dollars in each case for retarding spirituous liquors without License. The petitioner states that the said James Collins is a very old man nearly blind, and with infirmity, and that they have reason to believe the liquor was sold by some member of his family without his knowledge, and they therefore pray that the said fines be remitted. And the said Court having recommended a compliance with the prayer of the petitioners, we do hereby remit the said fines.

By the petition of Sam Thompson of the City of Annapolis, it appears that he entered into a recognizance in the sum of thirty dollars for his appearance before the same Grand County Court, at October Term 1828, to answer for assault and Battery on certain Attorney McHair, and that the said recognizance has been forfeited. The petitioner states, that he is by profession a Printer and that his constant attendance in the printing office is required by his employer, that living in the City, and never absent therefrom during the whole term of the Court, his attendance could have been procured at any time. He further states, that the said Attorney McHair, the Victim for the State, is dead, and that the State's Attorney has abandoned the prosecution, and he therefore prays for a remission of the said forfeiture. And the said Court having recommended a compliance with the prayer of the petitioner, we do hereby remit the same.
