

By the petition of James Gillibay of the City of Annapolis, it appears that he was fined by Anne Arundel County Court, at April Term 1826, the sum of fifteen dollars for an assault on Christopher Joseph & others. The petitioner states that he is now in the custody of the Sheriff on account of the said fine, and being utterly unable to pay the same, he prays for a remission thereof. And sundry respectable citizens of the City of Annapolis, having recommended a compliance with the prayer of the said petitioner, we do hereby remit the said fine.

By the petition of sundry respectable citizens of Baltimore County, accompanied by a transcript from the Records of the County Court of said County, it appears that Percival Shipley of the said County, was fined by the said County Court, at September Term 1828, the sum of sixteen dollars for selling liquor without License. The Petitioners state that from their knowledge of the said Shipley, they are satisfied that his violating the Law, as aforesaid, was the effect of ignorance rather than design, that he has hitherto conducted himself in an orderly and peaceable manner, and has a large and growing family and is poor, they therefore recommend him to mercy. And the said Court having recommended a remission of the said fine, we do hereby remit the same.

By the petition of Thomas H. Stearns of Baltimore County, accompanied by a transcript from the Records of the County Court of said County, it appears that he was fined by the said County at September Term 1828, the sum of fifty dollars for selling liquor without License. The Petitioner states that having taken out a License to sell liquor, was ignorant that he would subject himself to a fine of fifty dollars, if he suffered any persons to drink the liquor that he might sell in his House, and having been fined by a Judgment of the said Court for suffering liquor to be drunk in his House, which he had sold, he most respectfully prays for a remission of the said fine. And the said Court having recommended a remission of the said fine, we do hereby remit the same.

By the petition of William R. King of Frederick County, it appears that he was fined by the County Court of said County, at February Term 1828, the sum of one hundred dollars, for having, as a Justice of the Peace, issued a blank warrant. The Petitioner states that he never denied having signed the warrants that Richard English, the witness against him, was engaged in looking for the papers, by which he the petitioner intended to fill up the blank in the said warrant, but that Frederick County Court
