

By the petition of George S. Boardman of Charles County it appears that he entered into a recognizance in the sum of four hundred dollars, with his surety Francis Simpson in the sum of two hundred dollars for his appearance in Charles County Court at October Term 1829 to answer what should be alleged against him: and that the said recognizance was forfeited. The Petitioner states, that he did attend at said term, but that no presentment was found against him, and that not knowing it to be necessary, he neglected to apply for a discharge. He therefore prays a remission of said forfeiture, and the said remission being recommended by the Court, We do hereby remit the same. The petition is accompanied by a transcript from the Records.

By the petition of Gustavus Brown and Richard W. McPherson of Charles County, accompanied by a transcript from the records, it appears, that the said Gustavus Brown and Richard W. McPherson, entered into a recognizance in two hundred dollars, for the personal appearance of Levi P. Scott in Charles County Court at August Term 1829, to answer for having taken the life of James Blumery, and which recognizance was forfeited. It appears from the statements of the petitioners and the testimony of Francis D. Howe Esq. who was present at the enquiry before the Magistrate, that the said Scott, acted entirely on the defensive, and had no intent to kill, which was also returned as the opinion of the Jury of Inquest: that Levi P. Scott however taking counsel from his friends, fled from the State, and the Court having recommended the remission of said forfeiture, We do hereby remit the same.
