

By the petition of George Falbach of Baltimore County accompanied by a transcript from the record, it appears that at April Term 1830 of Baltimore County Court, he was fined the sum of fifty dollars, and costs, for selling one pound of sugar without license. The Petition states that he has had license to keep an Ordinary on the Belle Air road since 1825, and that in May 1828, he took out a transient license: that after the expiration of last mentioned license he sold one pound of sugar which he had purchased during it, continuously, believing he was authorized to do so, and without any intention to violate the Law, and prays a remission of said fine, which being recommended by the Court, we do hereby remit. &
