

His Excellency The Governor this day granted a Writ of Habeas Corpus to Levi Dowell, presented at May Term 1830, of Calvert County Court for Petit Larceny. (See pardon records.)

By the petition of Stephen Fairland accompanied by a transcript from the record, it appears that he was fined by Baltimore County Court at April Term 1830 in the sum of Fifty dollars, for selling one half gill of whiskey without license, and prays a remission of said fine.

It appears from the petition that the Petitioner is very old and infirm and subject to fits, and that he is utterly unable to pay the fine; and the prayer of the petition being recommended by the Court & by respectable Gentlemen of the City of Baltimore we do hereby remit it.

By the petition of John G. Duvall, and Hammond Duvall accompanied by a transcript from the record, it appears that a recognizance of the said John G. Duvall, with Hammond Duvall in two hundred dollars each, for the appearance of John G. Duvall in Baltimore County, to answer to an Indictment for mauling a Horse, was forfeited on the 2<sup>d</sup> April 1830.

The petitioner states, that the said John G. Duvall failed to attend on the day named in the recognizance, from his having mistaken the time of the meeting of the Court, and prays a remission; and the Court having also recommended it, we do hereby remit it.

By the petition of Benjamin Leibert, accompanied by a transcript from the record, it appears that at November Term 1829, of Washington County Court, he was fined fifty dollars, for selling liquor in a quantity less than a pint without an Ordinary license.

It appears from the petition that the said Leibert had no intention to defraud the State, and that he was only guilty of mistake; under these circumstances, he prays a remission of said fine, & the Court having recommended it, we do hereby remit it.
