

Thomas Henden, Lieutenant, in Captain David How my company vice Theodore / moved away

For the Sherford United Artillery Co. attached to First Brigade William Street, 2nd Lieutenant vice Thomas Street resigned.
Gerrard W. Colver, 2nd Lieutenant vice Thomas Bay resigned, in Captain Alexander Rigdon's company

For the Extra Battalion of Dorchester County.
James A. Stewart, Adjutant vice William A. Stewart resigned commissioned by mistake

For the Fourth Cavalry District.
Richard M. Miles, 2nd Lieutenant, vice George D. Leigh resigned, in Capt. Theobald's company.

50 The account of Henry J. Sanderson Editor of the Baltimore Republican amounting to $35. Examined and perfect

50 The account of William P. S. amounting to $30. Examined & perfect

50 The account of Peter F. S. Editor of the National Journal to February 2, 1858. Examined & perfect

Ordered that the armorer at Annapolis deliver to Capt William Bottom of Snow Hill, Worcester County, the usual number of arms and accoutrements for his Troop of Cavalry, upon his presenting to this Department evidence of his having complied with the regulations of the arms and upon his filing the usual books.

Ordered that the armorer at Annapolis deliver to the order of the Commissary of Snow Hill, fifty muskets and bayonets upon their filing the usual book in this Office.

The account of William M. S. Editor of the Constitution for subscriptions to the Constitution to 20th Sept 1858. Examined & perfect

The account of James Miller amounting to $50. Examined & perfect for $50

The account of James Green for printing &c amounting to $50 Examined & perfect

David Jackson Riley, a deaf and dumb boy, residing in Baltimore County, was this day selected to be sent to the Penitentiary and confined for the deaf and dumb