

remitted. -

(signed) Thomas King Carroll
Hugh M. Elderly.
Robert Mason
Benj. F. Mackall.

By the petition of Columbus Kelly, accompanied by a transcript from the record, it appears, that at June Term 1830 of Baltimore City Court he was convicted of selling liquor without license, and fined Twenty four dollars.

The petitioner states that his conviction to take out license, was the result of mistake, and that he had no intention to defraud the State. He prays a remission, which is also recommended by the Chief Judge of Baltimore City Court. We do therefore hereby remit it.

(signed)

Thomas King Carroll.
Hugh M. Elderly
Robert Mason.
Benj. F. Mackall.

By the petition of Eleanor Wheaton accompanied by a transcript from the records, it appears that at February Term 1830 of Baltimore City Court she was fined by the said Court in three cases Twenty four dollars each amounting to seventy two dollars, for selling liquor without license.

It appears by a statement from the Court, that the Petitioner has been a long time in Jail, and is entirely unable to pay the said fines or any part of them, and they on these grounds recommend her to Executive clemency. We do therefore hereby remit the said fines.

(signed) Thomas King Carroll.
Benjamin F. Mackall
Robert Mason.
Hugh M. Elderly.

By the petition of Peter Klunk, accompanied by a transcript from the records, it appears that at November Term 1829 of Baltimore City Court, he was convicted on Indictment of a misdemeanor, and was fined by the Court twenty dollars. The petitioner states that the costs in the cause amount to fifty dollars, and that being poor, he is unable to pay the whole sum, and prays a remission of fifteen dollars of the fine. And the Court having recommended the remission as prayed, we do therefore hereby remit the sum of fifteen dollars of the fine.

(signed) Thomas King Carroll
Hugh M. Elderly
Robert Mason
Benjamin F. Mackall

By the petition of Elizabeth et. Sarah Chandler, and Catharine Peduzzi, accompanied by a transcript from the record, it appears that at June Term 1830 of Baltimore City Court they were presented and fined in two separate cases, in the amount of twenty four dollars for