Lieut^{col} Hugh Gelston, Colonel, vice Edes promoted.

Major James F. Symington, Lieutenant Colonel, vice Gelston promoted.

Capt^l William Wickersham, Major, vice Symington promoted.

The Clerk of the Council, by direction of the Governor and Council this day addressed a letter to Brigadier General Benjamin Edes of the Fourteenth Brigade, informing him, that his letter of July last, recommending appointments of officers for the Thirty ninth Regiment, has not been received at this office, and requesting a renewal of the recommendations.

By the petition of William Smith accompanied with a transcript from the record, it appears that at October Term 1829 of Calvert County Court he was convicted on Indictments of an assault and battery on William C. Hodgkin and fined fifty dollars.

It is stated by many respectable persons of Calvert County some of them members of the grand Jury who formed the presentments, that the assault was committed hastily under circumstances of great provocation, and that the said William is a gentleman of highly correct deportment, and they with the said W. C. Hodgkin pray a remission of the fine, which we do therefore hereby come.
