By the petition of Henry Crites of Anne Arundel County, read at the court from the records of the County Court, said County, it appears, that he was fined, by the said Court, at October Term 1830, the sum of ten dollars for an assault on Michael O'Leary. The petitioner states that the said Crites, is unable to pay the said fine, that he underwent a confinement in jail of thirty days on account of the said offence; that he is poor and has a large family dependent upon his labour for support; that he is advanced in years, and as far as the petitioner is able to learn, has always been a good and peaceable citizen; they therefore pray for remission of the said fine. And upon consideration of his case, we do hereby remit the said fine.
