

Thomas Martin, Christopher Burkhardt, Jacob Kerpinger, Charles Kestline, Lewis Kitzman and James Twissler Junior, Justices of the Peace of Washington County in addition to those already in commission.

Carl L. Strandberg and William T. Harvey, Justices of the Peace of Kent County in addition to those already in commission.

The respective Bonds of George Keys and William H. Klanson, for the performance of their respective duties as Executive Committee of the Penitentiary, was laid before the Board and being examined, and the sureties considered sufficient, were severally approved.

Richard H. Gracey Bond for the faithful performance of his duty as an inspector of Tobacco, at the late Warehouse in the City of Baltimore, was laid before the Board and examined, and the sureties being satisfactory, was approved and ordered to be sent to the Clerk of Baltimore County to be recorded according to Law.

The respective Bonds of Leonard Bradley, William Pennington and William Parker, for the performance of their respective duties as gaugers of Ales and inspectors of domestic distilled Spirits, were laid before the Board, and examined, and the sureties in each case being satisfactory, the said Bonds were severally approved.

On the nomination of His Excellency, the Governor, and by and with the advice and consent of the Council, the following commissions, were made and commissions issued accordingly, to wit:

Inspectors of Tobacco for Prince Georges County
At Upper Marlborough Warehouse

Nathaniel M. Mcgregor and James Leman

At Queen Anne Warehouse
Samuel Peck and William B. Mullikin.

At Piscataway Warehouse

Coratis Dyer

At Bladensburg Warehouse

Richard A. Moring and Invention Croft.

At Aqueduct Warehouse

Edw. Turner.

At Nottingham Warehouse

James James and Benjamin Shiner

Inspectors of Tobacco for Potters County.

At Choptan Warehouse

William H. Todd.