

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Henry Roberts or order thirty dollars fifty cents for balance of expenses of guard to, & per diem - thorough with him, after deducting fifty dollars advanced for that object. ~

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Mrs W Whittington or order twenty two dollars for two bound books containing eleven quires for the Annals, & account allowed. ~

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay David Ridgely or order twelve dollars twenty two cents for sundry incidental expensings, and account of the Library, & account allowed. ~

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Claude Hammond or order thirteen dollars thirty one cents, for Stationary for the Adjutant General, & account allowed. ~

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay George Riggs or order forty six dollars six cents, for compensation and expenses for bringing John Brunsby a fugitive from Justice, from Pennsylvania, to the City of Baltimore, & account allowed. ~

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Henry J Sanderson or order twenty three dollars forty cents, viz for publishing in his paper by order of the Executive - for proposals for public printing $4:50, for an ad relative to Election district in Frederick County $10, and for subscription to his paper from the 5 of February 1830 to the 11th of March 1831 $8:90 - & account allowed. ~

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Samuel W Spencer or order nine dollars, for balance due him for publishing in the Kent Inquirer several acts of assembly, by order of the Executive after deducting $11:50, heretofore paid him on that account, & account allowed. ~

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Roger P Tany or order one hundred and fifty dollars for services, whilst he was Attorney General of this State, in aiding his deputies in prosecution for Violations of the Lottery Laws.

Ordered that Andrew Elmer