

List, as Gauger's being submitted to the board were examined and severally approved.
William H. Tilghman, Charles Bennett, James Bennett Esq, and Charles Littleton, additional Justices of the Peace of Worcester County.

William B. Pittiner, John Gittings, Patrick McGill Esq, Thomas
Coe, John Delaplant, David Steiner and Robert Fleming, ^{additional} Justices of the Peace of Frederick County.

Edward M. Blake and William Whayland, additional Justices of the Peace of Somerset County.

Peter Bell, Justice of the Superior Court of Somerset County, vice Crockett dec'd.

Henry Snyder, additional Justice of the Peace for Washington County.

Thomas Talbot Gorsuch, Nicholas Foster, Benjamin Sutton, and John Walter, additional Justices of the Peace of Baltimore County.

His Excellency the Governor, this day granted a Pardon to William Root, on account of a spanting and beating Edwin Norton: of which he had been convicted at February Term 1832.
(See Pardon Record)

Saturday March 3^d 1832
The Council met P. R. & S. E. & N. J. the same as on yesterday.

Sunday March 5th 1832
The Council met P. R. & S. E. & N. J. the same as on yesterday.

Ordered that the Armes at Annapolis deliver to Captain William S. B. Cotman, or order fifty Cavalry Swords, and fifty pair of Poni-and Holsters.

The respective Bonds of Edward Hughes & John Silliman
as Lottery Commissioners, and of Thomas H. Belt and James E. Worrell Gauger & the Bond of William Keown, as Armes at Annapolis, and the Bond of Joseph O'Leary as Keeper of the Penitentiary, were submitted to the board were examined and severally approved.

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor and with the advice and consent of the Council, James Leconte and Muir, were appointed additional Justices of the Peace for and a Commission issued to them accordingly.