

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay William McMurray or order fourteen dollars forty nine cents for one quarter interest due the first of January upon a certificate of stock for $1039 held by him on account of the purchase money of Tobacco Warehouse and Lots.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Lewis Potts or order two thousand six hundred and fifty two dollars forty five cents for Principal and Interest from the first day of July last of a certificate of Stock for $2570, held by him on account of the purchase money of Tobacco Warehouse and Lots.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay McHenry and Bond or their order twenty one dollars fifty cents for publishing in the Independent Citizen, by order of the Executive, forecasts of the General Expenditure of a month allowed.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay William Read or order twenty six dollars fifty cents for dissecting chimneys in the State and Government House, amount allowed.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Alexander Graham or order seventeen dollars for publishing in his paper, by order of the Executive of a Proclamation and an advertisement, amount proved and allowed.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Francis Arlott or order five dollars for carrying trunks from the Wharf to Centreville, amount allowed.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Joseph R. Eaves or order thirty one dollars fifty cents for Stationary for the use of the Executive and Legislative Department of the Government, amount allowed.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay George W. Sharp or order fourteen dollars six for publishing in his paper, by order of the Executive a Law and an advertisement, $12, and for one year Subscription to his paper, $2, amount allowed.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay James C. Lehart or order seven dollars fifty four cents for sending articles for the Library, amount allowed.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Leakin and Barney or order thirty dollars six for publishing in their