By the Petition of Mary Shoebrook of Queen Anne County, it appears that She entered into a Recognizance in the sum of fifty dollars for her appearance before Queen Anne County Court at a November Term 1829 to answer for an assault & battery on Elizabeth Barnacle, and that the said Recognizance has been forfeited. The Petitioner states that She attended the said Court and continued ready to have traversed the case but in consequence of the absence of the said Barnacle the State Witness the case could not be tried and her recognizance was regularly respited from Term to Term until a November Term 1833, when the said Petitioner, being much indisposed and believing the Witness would not appear (which was the fact) She did not attend, and her recognizance being called was forfeited. She further states that She is extremely poor, and unable to pay said forfeiture. She therefore
