

Joel Comuelo, James Higgins and Ganett McBride, Justices of the third Election District Court, for Dorchester County. —

James Cummings, Whitfield Woodford and Levin Keene, of Henry, Justices of the fourth Election District Court, for Dorchester County. —

Henry S. McNameis, William Andrews and Bazzellai Slacum
Justices of the fifth Election District Court, for Dorchester County. —

John Travers, John Samuel S. Meekins and Wesley Woodland, Justices of the sixth Election District Court, for Dorchester County. —

John Newton, Garner Bayly and Thomas Barnett, Justice of the seventh Election District Court, for Dorchester County. —

William J. Ford, Michael Mitchell and John Keene, C. S. Justices of the eighth Election District Court, for Dorchester County. —

John Muir, William W. Jones, William G. Secombe, Marcellus
Insley, John Collins, N. W. S., Samuel Mobery, Edmund H. Mitchell, Francis Price, William A. Slacum, William C. ~~Travis~~, William Bell and Edwin E. Masford, Coroners of Dorchester County. —

Friday February 10th 1837.

The Council met - Present the same as on yesterday.

His Excellency the Governor this day granted a Nolle Prosequi to Jacob Osborn, on account of a charge of Stealing, which was pending against him by indictment and plea of guilty, in Baltimore City Court.
(See Parson Record).

Saturday February 11th 1837.

The Council met - Present the same as on yesterday.

His Excellency the Governor granted the following Nolle Prosequis

No
To William Mott, on account of a charge of Stealing, to the amt of $9.30, which was pending against him by indictment and plea of guilty, in Baltimore City Court, and

To Robert Parson, on account of Felony for which he had been recognized to answer before Baltimore City Court.

(See Parson Record).