

County Court one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight of ... and angster and sentenced to two years confinement in the Penitentiary.

Also a pardon to Richard Collier who had been convicted at the October Term of Baltimore City Court at one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven of rioting on the Sabbath and sentenced to be imprisoned for the space of twelve months and to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and to give security for his good behaviour.

Also a pardon to Simeon Swigg who had been convicted at the April term of Allegany County Court one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight of manslaughter.

Also commuted the punishment of Dela Swigg, who had been convicted at the April Term of Allegany County Court one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight of murder and sentenced to be hung.
His punishment was commuted from hanging to fifteen years confinement in the Penitentiary.

Thursday May 12th 1838

His Excellency the Governor, this day, granted a Nolle Prosequi to Thomas Pinkney, negro, who had been presented by the Grand Jury of Allegany County with Larceny.

May 14th 1838

Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to John W. Whittington or order thirteen dollars for binding three Royal reads for the State, as per account allowed.

By order of the Governor.

Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to David Ridgely or order Forty dollars on account of transcribing public documents under Resolution No. 66 of December Session 1835, to be accounted for.

By order of the Governor.

May 15th 1838.

Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Bayly and Burns or order Twelve dollars, being the amount due for Nos 6 & 7 of the Indian Portrait Gallery subscribed for by the State, as per certificate of the Secretary.

By order of the Governor.

May 16th 1838.

Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to H. S. Bolton or order thirty five dollars for publishing in the "Circulator" "An act to amend the Constitution of the State" and "An act in relation to Clerks & Registers."

By order of the Governor.

The Senate not being in Session, His Excellency the Governor,
this day, made the following appointments, viz:
Harvey Stone, additional Justice of the Peace for Baltimore County;
John M. Kenney, a Representative on the part of the State in meeting