

The Governor sent the following message to the Senate and House of Delegates.
January 22nd 1841

Message

To the Senate & House of Delegates.

I send herewith the account & vouchers of the Superintendants of the National road, for the year 1840.

(Signed) Wm. Beason

January 22nd 1841

To the Senate

I hereby nominate the following persons, for the appointments respectively annexed to their names.

Message

Ex. Sec.

James Murray to be Secretary of State.

David Ridgely to be State Librarian

John H. Alexander, to be Topographical Engineer

Julius T. Ducatel, to be State Geologist.

Thomas Harney to be Examiner General for the Western Shore.

Greenbury Turbutt, to be Examiner General for the Eastern Shore

John S. Gittings to be Commissioner of Loans

Harow Duvall to be Armorer at the City of Annapolis.

Leard Hoffman to be Armorer at Frederick City.

Philip Horsey Armorer at Easton.

Michael McBlair, Samuel S. Dickinson, and George Cooke, to be Commissioners of Lotteries.

Henry Stump, Richard Frisby, and Edward Palmer to be Commissioners of Insolvent Debtors for the City & County of Baltimore.

Richard H. Griffith, John Warren, Nicholas Dorsey, and Joseph S. Wilson, to be Inspectors of tobacco, at the States warehouses in the City of Baltimore.

Jacob Beaw to be Inspector General of Flour, and David Ricketts
John Wither Junior, and Henry J. Williams, to be Assistant Inspectors of flour in the City of Baltimore.

Richard C. Green, John S. Maffett, Edward G. Wittette, and
Joseph Haun to be Inspectors of salted fish in the City of Baltimore.

Leonard Hernan, and Andrew Dayhuff to be inspectors of sole leather, rough skirting and harness and other rough leather in the City of Baltimore.

Nathaniel B. Keene to be inspector of green hides and skins in the City of Baltimore.

John McPherson, Luther Patchiffe, Daniel Hoover, Benwood
Barrow, William Poney, and Emanuel Stansbury to be gaugers of Casks, and Inspectors of domestic distilled spirits in the City of Baltimore.

William Robinson, George Hall, James Norris, Robert Wells, Caleb

Sheffer