Surrender of a fugitive

The Governor gave up Alexander Dugan a fugitive from Justice from the State of New York charged with having committed grand larceny in that State upon the demand of the Governor of the State.

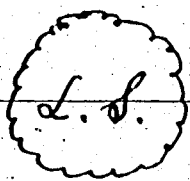

Certificate of election of members of Congress

The following Certificate of the Election of Members of Congress to represent this State at the Election held on Monday the seventeenth day of May, instant, was transmitted to each of the gentlemen elected, to the Secretary of State of the United States, and to the Clerks of the House of Representatives.

State of Maryland, to wit:

Whereas, an election was held on Monday the seventeenth day of May instant in the several Congressional Districts of this State, as described by law, for members to represent the State in the next Congress of the United States; And whereas it is made the duty of the Governor, after having ascertained the number of votes given for each person voted for, and declared by proclamation the names duly elected to transmit a certificate of said Election to the Secretary of State of the United States, or other proper officer authorized to receive the same to be by him delivered to the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States when assembled: And whereas the number of said votes has been ascertained and proclamation made accordingly:

Now therefore, I, William Grason, Governor of the State of Maryland do hereby certify that by the returns of the said Election in the several Counties of this State made agreeably to law it appears that Isaac D Jones of the first District, James A. Pearce of the second District, James M. Williams of the third District Alexander Randall and John P. Kennedy of the fourth District, William Cort Johnson of the fifth District, John Thompson Mason of the sixth District and Augustus R. Solter of the seventh District had the highest number of votes in their respective Districts, and were duly elected members to represent this State in the next Congress of the United States.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland on this 31st day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand, Eight hundred and forty one

By the Governor.
