

Illinois, respecting the refunding of the fine imposed upon General Andrew Jackson, in the year 1815; resolutions of the Legislature of Vermont, respecting the "frauding privileges and portages;" resolutions of the Legislature of Georgia, upon the subject of repudiation, assumption of state debts, and re-
-pensive to the certain resolves of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, against the imprisonment of free negroes, under the laws of those states, which forbid the ingress of such persons within their borders.

Francis Thomas

January 27th 1843.

On the recommendation of a number of respectable citizens of Baltimore, the Governor this day remitted the fine of fifteen dollars which was imposed upon William Brown for an assault and battery, by Baltimore City Court, at its November term 1842.

January 31st 1843.

The Governor this day sent to the House of Delegates, the following message:

State Department

Annapolis, January 30th 1843.

To the Honorable

The General Assembly:

Agreeably to their request, I have the honor to submit for your consideration, the communication of the Presidents of the Petersburg and Richmond Rail Road Companies, proposing a reduction of the fare of passengers on the Washington Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road.

Francis Thomas

January 31st 1843.

The Governor this day sent to the House of Delegates the following message:

State Department

Annapolis, January 30th 1843.

To the Honorable

The General Assembly:

I have the honor herewith to submit the report of the Managers of the State Colonization Society; and a copy of resolutions of the State of Rhode Island, recommending the repayment of the fine, with the costs and interest, which was imposed upon General Andrew Jackson, in the year 1815, by the District Court of the United States for the District of Louisiana.

Francis Thomas

Feb 3rd 1843.

This day the Governor remitted a fine which was imposed upon Francis N. Percutt, of six dollars for an assault and battery by the fourth election district Court of Queen Anne County Court.

Feb 7th 1843

This day the Governor on the recommendation of a large number of respectable citizens, granted a Wolfe Prosequi to Geyron Reed who was presented in Baltimore City Court for having obtained goods under false pretences. said writ