To His Excellency the Gov. of Tennessee

requisition upon the Gov. of Tennessee

It appears by the annexed papers duly authenticated according to the Laws of this State that William J. Hughes stands charged with the crime of obtaining goods under false pretences, and it has been represented to me that he has fled from the justice of this State and has taken refuge within the State of Tennessee

Now therefore pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution and Laws of the United in such cases made and provided I do hereby request that the said William J. Hughes, be apprehended and delivered to Hugh Whittall who is hereby duly authorized to receive and convey him to the State of Maryland there to be dealt with according to Law

Edw. J. Prothon

Secy of State

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed my name and the great Seal of the State this 24th April 1845
