No one can doubt that greatly beneficial consequences attended the World's Fair, recently held in London. This Exhibition, to be held in the City of New York is designed to accomplish like results. Its chief aim will be to bring Europe into a more intimate acquaintance with our commercial, mechanical and agricultural resources and skill; and thereby to give fresh impetus to our industry and commerce. Another and by no means secondary object will be, to draw together in a closer relationship of feeling and interest the several States of our Union; and thus to foster mutual respect and harmony, by teaching to each member of the Confederacy its dependence upon the others for that great measure of happiness and power, which an All Merciful Providence has so beneficently conferred upon us as a united people.

E. Louis Lowe

March 12th. 1853

The Governor refused to release from imprisonment or remit the fine imposed on M. Svers, convicted of assault and battery in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City at January Term 1853.

14th.

The Governor transmitted to the General Assembly copies of a draft of a law sent by the Secretary of War of the United States, in pursuance of an act of Congress relative to the introduction of water into the City of Washington, and required to be passed by the State of Maryland before any purchase of lands, rights &c. could be made by the United States.

15th.

The Governor issued the following Requisition:

State of Maryland, To Writ:

Ernoch Louis Lowe, Governor of the State of Maryland,

To His Excellency The Governor of Pennsylvania.

It appears by the annexed papers, duly authenticated according to the laws of this State, that a certain Jacob France, late of Frederick County in this State, stands charged by the Grand Jury of said County with beating, wounding and illtreating, with intent to kill, a certain Benjamin F. Bartgis against the form of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, and against the peace, government and dignity of the State; and it has been represented to me that he has fled from the justice of this State and has taken refuge within the State of
