

April 22^d. 1853

The Governor pardoned William Flemming, convicted in Baltimore City Court, at December Term, 1850, of assault with intent to kill. (See Book of Pardons.)

23^d.

The Governor approved the bond of William Harwood, elected by the General Assembly, State Librarian.

The Governor remitted a fine of twenty dollars imposed on Richard Hittings at January Term 1853 of the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, for assaulting and beating Susan Shaw.

25th.

The Governor remitted a fine of ten dollars imposed by the Circuit Court for Howard County, at March Term 1853, upon Thomas R. Hagg, for selling goods without license, upon the recommendation of Judge Brewer, J. T. B. Cozay, State Attorney General.

The Governor directed notice of an application for the pardon of George Cordery, convicted at July Term 1849, of the Baltimore City Court, of felony to be published; to expire on the 16th of May next.

The Governor granted a pardon to William Jones, alias, Carter, convicted in Baltimore City Court, at January Term 1851, of burglary. (See Record of Pardons.)

The Governor sent to the Governor of Pennsylvania, a copy of a resolution of the General Assembly of Maryland, thanking the authorities of that State for the courtesies extended upon their late visit to Annapolis, and asking the authorities of that State to accept the hospitalities of Maryland.

The Governor sent to the House of Delegates the following Message:

Executive Department,
April 25th, 1853.

To The House of Delegates,

Gentlemen,

I have the honor herewith to transmit the Returns of the Election held in Caroline County, for a member of your honorable Body, vice Henry M. Godwin, deceased.

E. Louis Love

26th.

The Governor upon the solicitation of many citizens of Prince George's County, assigned A. R. Sellers Esq. as counsel to assist the State Attorney for Anne Arundel County in the prosecution of J. H. Worthington, charged by indictment of the Grand Jury for the County of Prince George's County, with the crime of murder, and removed to said Anne Arundel County.