

1861.

sentenced to be confined in jail for the period of eighteen months.

(See Records of Pardons &c.)

On the same day, the Governor pardoned J. Michael Funk, convicted of Larceny, on five several indictments, in the Circuit Court for Frederick county, at February Term, 1854, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years and one month on each indictment.

(See Records of Pardons &c.)

On the same day, the Governor pardoned James Logan, convicted of Riot, at the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county, at January Term, 1861, and sentenced to be confined in Baltimore city jail for the term of two years.

(See Records of Pardons, &c.)

On the same day, the Governor issued a Warrant for the execution, on Friday the sixth day of September, 1861, of Mary Taylor, negro slave, convicted in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county, at October Term, 1860, for Murder.

On the same day, the Governor issued a Warrant for the execution of Alexander Gale, on Friday the sixth day of September, 1861, convicted of Murder, in the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, at May Term, 1860.

July 31st.

The Governor directed notice to be given of the application for pardon of William J. Brookshank, convicted in the Circuit Court for Charles county, at May Term, 1860, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for the period of two years.