

Maritime Laws of the high Court of Admiralty of Great Britain) within this Province and the Territories to the same belonging, and also in any of the Cities, Towns or Places in the aforesaid Province for the like Causes and Matters to sit hear and determine therein according to Justice, and judicially and lawfully to proceed together with all and singular their Incidents Emergencies Dependancies and Causes annexed or connected whatsoever; And furthermore to compel Witnesses (if for good Will hatred, favour or fear or for any other Causes whatsoever they shall withdraw themselves) to give their Testimony to the Truth in all or any of the like Causes according as Right requirerth, and furthermore to take all Recognizances, Obligations, Sureties and Stipulations as well on the Part or Instance of any person whatsoever for any Contracts Debts or other Matters Causes or Business whatsoever, and them put in Execution and cause or command them to be executed; And also duly to enquire of and take into your Custody all and singular the Goods of Traitors, Pyrates Manslayers Felons Fugitives and Felo's de se, and of all Bodies and Persons drowned, slain or any wise coming to their Death in the Sea Ports, Rivers Publick Streams or Creeks, and Places whatsoever or afloat; And of Maims happening in any of the Places aforesaid, and of all unlawful and forbidden Engines, and Nets, and of the Occupiers and Users thereof, and of all Royal Fish (Viz^t) Whales Sharks Grampuses Dolphins Sturgeons and all other Great large fish whatsoever to the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary of this Province) belonging in Right of his Admiralty thereof, And also of and upon all Goods lost on the Sea, Wrecks of Shippes Jettons Sargons Shoars, cast upon the Sea and Wrecks of the Sea; and Goods had or accounted to be forfeited, or by any Chance or Torture found or to be found, and of all Trespases, Faults, Offences, Injuries, and Crimes Maritime whatsoever, as well upon the high Sea as in or upon all and any the Ports Rivers, fresh Waters and Creeks, or Sea Shoars, and to the Height of the Water from any the first Bridge towards the Sea, in and thro' this Province) howsoever belonging to the maritime Coasts thereof whensoever howsoever coming and happening committed and done or to be perpetrated and committed, discovered and found; And to Tax, moderate, exact, collect and levy all fines Mutes Amerciaments and Compositions whatsoever in the said due,