

15)
due, or to be due, and them lawfully to command, and compel to be collected and paid, and also to proceed in all and singular the Matters of, and in all other Causes Contempt and Offences whatsoever, and howsoever contracted, or if so be the Goods or Persons of the Offenders shall be found within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Admiralty within this Province according to the Laws Civil and Maritime and Customs of old used in his Majesty's high-Court of Admiralty of Great Britain and by such other lawful ways manner and Means as You may better know and can proceed, and such Causes and Contracts to hear examine discuss and finally determine saving nevertheless the Right of Appealing

And also to arrest command and cause to be arrested the Ships Persons Effects Goods Wares and Merchandizes whatsoever for the Premises and for any of them or other Causes whatsoever concerning them in what Place soever within the Province of Maryland or the Territories thereof they shall happen to be or be found in or without the Liberties, and to compel all Persons whatsoever in that Part as the Case shall require to appear & answer with the Power of inflicting any Punishment or Mulet, according to the Laws and Customs aforesaid, and to do and cause Justice to be done therein, and also summarily and plainly to proceed, the Order of Right being preserved, or the Sail lifted up without Noise, and the figure of Judgment alone being made, and the Truth of the thing inspected

And I do further commit and by the Tenor of these Presents grant You full Power and Authority to fine correct punish and chastize and reform all Guilty Persons imprisoned, and all Violators and Usurpers of the Rights of the Court of Admiralty within this Province, and all Delinquents, and contumaciously absenting Sailors, Mariners, Fishermen, Boatmen, and other Workmen having Skill or exercising maritime Affairs, as well according to the Civil & Maritime Laws, Ordinances & Customs of and their Defects, as also according to the Statutes & Ordinances of the Kingdom of Great Britain in that Part published, provided and