

In the year 1725 another Temporary Act was passed for the Limitation of Officers Fees with a greater Abatement and Reduction thereof than in the year 1719 which was dissent'd to by the Proprietary And in which the usual Proviso of the former Acts was Omitted -

Since the Dissent of the said Act of 1725 the Fees have not been ascertain'd by any Act or other fixed Regulation.

The Act in December 1704 repealed all Acts enacted at any Time Before April Assembly 1704, By virtue whereof the repealing Act of April 1704 then continued and still is in Force; That Act of April 1704 repealed all Laws therein not Express'd, And amongst those Express'd not to be repealed, Is the Act of Repeal of all Laws theretofore made in the Province and Confirming all Laws made that General Assembly; By force of which said Act of April 1704 which is still in Force the Act of Repeal in 1695 Force Ascertain'd &c. which was then in Force and not particularly Express'd in the said Act of April 1704 was repealed and the Act of 1694 Continued and still is in Force by being particularly mentioned amongst those design'd not to be repealed in the Act of April 1704. The Act of 1694 Repeals all Laws theretofore made and consequently repeals the Repealing Act of 1692 - which by the general words did Repeal the perpetual Act of 1676 for Limitation of Officers Fees; And the Act of 1719 was made only to Declare particularly what Laws were repealed by the Act of 1715 But amongst such Laws so declared to be repealed none of the Acts aforementioned is declared to be repealed so that neither the Act of 1715 or 1719 has any Relation to them.

1st Q<sup>u</sup> Whether a Repealing Act can have Effect on any Acts but such as are in Force at the Time of making such Repealing Acts

2<sup>d</sup> Q<sup>u</sup> Whether the Act of 1694 by the State of the within Case is not still in Force and whether the Repealing Act of 1692 must not stand repealed as long as the Act of 1694 is of Force. -