 to be the fountain Head of Potomack River & question not but Your L^{ty} will be for taking such measures as may ascertain the mutual Limits of the Two Proprietorships agreeable to the Direction & true Situation of their respective Charters. I am If You can obtain from Mr Penns to go to the Latitude of 40 upon Susquehanna in order to run a West Line thence for Your Northern Boundary. You may give up so much of the Eastern Side of that River as lies north of the Temporary Line in respect to this Mr Jennings can give more certain information to whom I should not have taken the liberty of referring had any one else here seem'd equally capable of giving Me information. He comes to England on leave of absence intending should not that Climate agree with his Constitution to return again; on my acquainting Him (as instructed) with Your farther expectations from Him if He continues his Office He answer'd that He hop'd soon to have the pleasure of seeing You & was persuaded You would not disagree on Terms.

The Act for the more effectual punishment of Negroes & other Slaves taken notice of in the 60 Article of my private Instructions I find is expired I shall take special care on its revival to have it more properly penn'd. —

I am sorry I have reason to think myself oblig'd not to comply with my Lords instructions in respect to Mr Harris as soon as I could wish - and as I mention'd in my last that I intend'd on account of his being charg'd with the forging of a Bill during his residence in London which I am aff^{id} He will not be able to vindicate Himself from. Mr Fisher
