

With the Permission of the Naval Officers in which is set forth the impossibility, of conforming strictly to the Instruction that forbids the Execution of that Office by Deputy, I have inclosed Col: Lloyd's Bond - an Indisposition which He has laboured under these six Weeks has interrupted our Consultations concerning His Ld's Quit Rents, which shall be the Object of our Care as soon as his Health will permit Him to venture from home. We have as yet only agreed with the Farmers for 15 p c. for collecting. ^{Our further Conclusion on} That Article as well as the resolution of the Council on Gibb's Millers Affairs I hope to send by the next opportunity. During the sitting of the Assembly one Mr Craddock thought proper in a Sermon addressed to the Legislature to enlarge on the scandalous Lives of many of his Brethren & seemed to recommend the Establishment of some superior Authority, which might take Cognizance of such Persons. The Tuesday following the Clergy Eleven in Number delivered Me a Remonstrance which I have transmitted & immediately