

at that time one Power found after comparing with great affinity the job of a. Marshallman never as particularly in in 30 pp. Bell in Power as if he was duly attending to every of his execution, but such justness as the Test, indication to prevent for the future by taking Board to avoid Prohibition from the Clergy before Ministers — the same Bill for preventing the further growth of Power from increased many things will appear to you as essential that I should be able to receive your advice what course I might take of a more necessary Bill concerning Power of that profession —

A Letter from the Lords of Trade concerning the state of the manufacturing Colonies & the to a Treaty with the Indians in Virginia & the in consequence of increasing the Liberty of the the Company in America for the Service of the for the time that has been made by the the best of Justice which you may receive from the State of the Colonies I have given your Majesty a to me in 1733

I have the honor to be Your Majesty's most Obedient and Affectionate Servant
John Oglethorpe