

I have Inclosed a Bill of Exchange, 100 for your Use of £25 which I procured according to your Desire.

You will please to give me Instructions for the Disposal of the Money arising in the Land Office during the Vacancy

Copy of a Letter dated to His Lordship
The Second of May 1754.

My Lord

In Obedience to your Lords Instructions I have transmitted Copies of all the Laws made at a Session of Assembly begun & held at Annapolis in this Province the 2^d of Oct^r 1753 & have fulfilled your Lordship's Pleasure by inclosing therewith a few Observations for the more easy reference to any thing new or of an extraordinary nature by any of them enacted — Such a Bill as your Lordship was pleased to recommend in your Instructions for the Naturalization of German Protestants importing themselves into this Province was brought into the Lower House of Assembly in the Oct^r Session but did not pass through, however these people suffer no great Inconveniencies from the want of such a Law, as there is an Act of Parliament in force in England, Naturalizing all such Foreigners after a few years Residence in any of His Majesty's Plantations — Advising with your Lordship's Agent & Judge of the Land Office about having parcels of Land surveyed in the several Counties & erected into Mannors I was informed that there is not remaining a Tract of Land (unless one in the Lower part of the Eastern Shore that I have a prospect of Discovering) extensive enough to answer that
