know none ~~who~~ can execute the Office with better Abilities.
He is a Gentle of the Law in great practice well esteemed & am persuaded from his Behaviour & Professions at my Arrival his Conduct since that he will not fail in his Duty either to the Govt. or to yourself — I have hinted to Col. Loyd to be punctual in his Remittances & am assured you will not find him negligent or deficient — I am

P.S. May 9. I yesterday opened the Session with the inclosed Speech & received the inclosed Address there —

Copy of the 10th Letter to M. Calvert. dated the 11th of May 1741. transmitted by Capt. Cozer in the Holly

Dear Sir. Your Favour of Jan^y 9. 11 I had the Satisfaction to receive & beg leave to seize this Opportunity to make my Acknowledgments to you for your Care & Sollicitude to undeceive his Dep^y & to represent things to him in their proper light. The Reasons I have taken the Liberty to urge in my other Letters for not having already put in execution the plan you favoured me with for collecting the Rents I hope will be thought satisfactory. I am persuaded any Gentle who is a Stranger to the Country must have been very deficient in his payments to my Lord or have himself suffered ~~some~~ from entering into such Conditions as you say were proposed. What Benefit could be promised to His Dep^y
