

Refusal; I learn the House of Delegates have resolved to send it up again with answers to those Reasons & Arguments to support the Bill, this is all that has yet been done & I am indeed apprehensive that the Issue of this will not be very unlike that of the late Session. As the Short Notice that was given me of this Ships being about to sail has not afforded me time to be so prolix, as I could have wished. I hope you will excuse me for not repeating to you what I have taken the Liberty to write to his Ex^{ty} concerning the military Affairs & Occurrences that have happened since my last which you would not think perhaps very interesting or important had I given a Detail of them. Something on that Subject you may expect in my next in the interim you will believe that I am with the greatest Respect & most obliging Sentiments

Copy of a Letter to His Ex^{ty} dated March 12. 1765

My Ex^{ty} As I have writ fully to your Ex^{ty} Secy. on the provincial Transactions & private Concerns in Answer to the Instructions that I had a few Days since the Satisfaction to receive from your Ex^{ty} I flatter myself I shall be excused for not being troublesome or tedious by a particular Detail & Account in this Letter of such Matters as I have now communicated to Mr Calvert to be submitted to your Ex^{ty} according to your Ex^{ty} Instructions, inclosed with Mr Calvert's last I had also the pleasure to receive a Let^r which yourself had couchsafed to honour me with for that kind Testimony of your Ex^{ty} favour I beg leave to make my most grateful Acknowledgments & at the same time to assure yr Ex^{ty} that the regard you are pleased to shew for Mr Logan will make me see your Ex^{ty} Expectations with respect to him punctually complied with. — A few Days after I did myself the honour to address a Letter to your Ex^{ty} in Jan^y last I departed for the Camp at Mills Creek to put in Execution what I then mentioned, After I had been there a Week
