

a moiety if I required it, finding that was the Case I drop the Affair & shall not think thereof again till I know your farther Pleasure. The 30th of Nov. 1753
I inclosed to you sundry Bills viz. Mr Wilmet's & Mr Jennings's Order for drawing Plans of the City of Annapolis £5=10 - Mr Emory for various Services & Order Mr Jennings £22=13=4. Mr Emory for sundry Services & Order Cap Sharp £14=4=9. - Col^o Cresap for Services by Gov Cyles Order £10.
The last of w^{ch} Bills only you have taken any Notice of to me, since that time the Memorations that Emory made in Obedience to an Order of Council has considerably enlarged his Bill, as you will see by the inclosed which he sent me sometime since with a Petition that I would procure him payment, I did not choose to refer him any Answer till I could be favoured with your Instructions, them I shall hope to receive soon, in the mean time I am

I. S. pray how or by whom is the Expence of copying the Laws that are now transmitted to be defrayed, if it was to be charged to the publick the Lower House would never I doubt admit it into the Journal, but if they should when would the Transcriber get satisfied, if he must depend on the publick for Payment, Your Instructions hereon will be acceptable to Lord Baltimore, Sept^r 15. 1755

My Lord

Since I did myself the honour to address your Lop^t last I have been informed by Governor Morris that