

187

in a Character for which he seems best adapted. Agreeable to His L^{ds} Instructions of the 22^d August, as I writ in my last, I let Mr Thomas know that upon Mr Dulany's Resignation His L^{dy} had directed that some Gent^l of the Council should be ap-pointed to succeed him as joint Commisary with Mr Tasher, & that if he chose to accept he should not want my Approbation.
On his embracing the Offer I acquainted Mr Tasher therewith fully persuaded that as he was to have a Copartner he would not refuse to accept Mr Thomas as such. Mr Tasher accepted himself a little surprized at what I said of His L^{dy}'s Instructions & thereon produced your Lett^r advising him that if it was agree--ble to him he might upon Mr Dulany's Resignation remain sole Commisary which he said he would choose to do; accordingly I was obliged to make an Apology to Mr Thomas for making him an Offer of what I could not dispose of, & desire him for the present to accept in lieu thereof my promise that if it shall ever lie in my power he shall always find me ready & disposed to serve him.
Colo. Lloyd has not been over here lately I have writ twice for him to attend the Upper House this Session, as soon as he comes I will communicate to him what you write concerning his Neglect in remitting His L^{dy}'s Money & once more press him to a more punc-tual Compliance with His L^{dy}'s Instructions as well as your re-peated Advice on that Subject. You bid me look out for a proper Person to succeed him in case His L^{dy} should determine to appoint another Agent; had not Mr Tasher already resigned it I should not scruple to mention him, & then I would not despair of seeing