him that he is absolutely averse to selling the Land or satisfying the Creditors & that all he endeavours at is to save Appearances.
I find there is little owing from his Lands to My L^d, The Farmers having made payment to His L^d p whenever the Land shall be occupied the Farmers will recover the arrears of Quit Rent.
I have been unable as yet to get a Bill of Exche for You or that of Parker's renewed, I am promised one within these two or three Days but Capt Stuart waits for my Letter & the Duplicate must be put on board a Vessel that sails to Morrow, however I shall have an Opportunity of transmitting it next week & in the mean time an  As since writing the above I have got Bills for £110 w^{ch} You will find inclosed.

Copy of a Lett to His L^d dated the 3 Oct 1756.

My L^d When I last did Myself the honour to write to Your L^d I acquainted You with my having issued a Proclamation for the Assembly to meet the Day after; I now send Your L^d a Copy of my Speech at the Opening of the Session with the Addresses of both Houses in Answer thereto, Your L^d will observe that I recommended Nothing more to the Assembly than what was obliged to do by the Letters that I had received from the Secretary of State & Lord Loudoun lest they should by a Multiplicity of Business be diverted from that on which they were more especially convened. Notwithstanding this precaution the Managers contrived to hinder the House from doing any thing for a Fortnight & then prevailed on them to desire me to communicate to them whatever Matters I intended to lay before them this Session, This was done that if possible, an
