Interest I find He has some Expectations of being considered for his Attendance & Services at the Treaty which Mr Jones nets at Wells Creek with some of the Chiefs of the Six Nations if you approve of giving him any thing more than his allowance you will be pleased to remit it him or signify as much to me that at my Return I might satisfy his expectations. One James Johnson also made a Complaint to me against Mr Gist alleging that some time before Gist went to Williamsburg, he agreed with him for 10 Beeves which Johnson was to drive to Salisbury Plain & receive the money for them at Gist's Return to the Camp, but when in pursuance of the Agreement the Beeves were brought He was then told by Gist that as he could not procure money at Williamsburg to pay for the Cattle He must be excused for declining the Bargain & said that Mr Johnson must also give a little longer Credit for some money due to him for Flour that He had delivered in at the Camp some time before for that He could at present let him have one pistole only in Part of Payment. Johnson complains that apprehending Gist was empowered to contract for the Government he reserved the Cattle for him & has neglected & refused every other market or Chapman whereby he must greatly suffer unless you will be pleased to direct that the Beaves be accepted & payed for according to his Agreement. As there were a Number of fine Beeves offered for Sale while He was at the Camp & the Owners on finding no purchasers there, were about to take them away to Phila. I ordered Colo. Cresap who has the
