it has given me an opportunity of mentioning my character publicly which I should have wanted to have done - mentions with relating on this point by way of notice and has had no ready answer in their place which would most certainly have been the case. I have received nothing on their side in our face - ~~---~~ The one thing that has been done upon us in England and the conduct of the office - but not have been supported of the loyalty of the people of the Kingdom - the loyalty of our friends determined not that any thing had happened which would such an enquiry enquiry or paper for us have had but two people on the ground among the other lawyer but in consequence of the things as to which up at my side in order to furnish themselves with materials every where packed - follow that could be found on the ground as brought down to some before that committee that the debtors had not done the duty for which they were bound. The result was that the officers were severely censured and I was not except for going to the my engagement of duty - it then became a question whether any of the things should be referred to a large Jury. After our own consideration it was concluded that nothing was done there should be brought to our ears on the day of this business - that the cause of those should be referred in such a manner as to expose both to London I myself of all concerned - and by our laws - so soon as I was advised of this being come to such a resolution - I repeat has an enquiry to be done - by the others mention with for the others he was pleased to require or know that they should continue
