

To General Amherst. Annapolis the 30 of March 1761.

Sir, Having received Your Lett. of the 15th Inst. last Saturday Night & having likewise received a Triplicate of the R<sup>ts</sup> Honble Mr Secretary Pitts Letter dated the 17th of Dec. I have thereupon issued a Proclamation requiring the Assembly of this Province to meet here the 7th of next Month which is as soon as they can possibly come together, I shall then communicate to them the contents of those Letters & press them in the most earnest manner to comply with His Majesty's Requisition & when I am informed of their Resolution I shall not fail to send Your Excellency immediate Advice thereof

With the greatest Regard I am

To Mr Pitt. Annapolis the 30 of March 1761.

Sir Having a few Days ago received a Triplicate of Your Letter dated the 17th of Dec. last I do myself the honour to inform You that proclamations are issued requiring the Assembly of this Province to meet the 7th of next Month which is as soon as they could possibly come together; I shall then communicate to them the contents of Your Lett. & I hope Sir You will believe that no Endeavour of mine shall be wanting to obtain from them proper Supplies for the Support of a Number of Men to be raised in this Province for such Service in All America as His Majesty's General on this Continent may direct — With the utmost Respect

To General Amherst. the 15 of April 1761.

Sir Being a few Days ago favoured with Your Letter dated the 26th of last Month I immediately made Enquiry after the Young Man concerning whom Your Excellency desired to have some Information & was told by a Gentleman who knew him that he is now on a Voyage to the West Indies in which Employment by what I can learn it will be best for him to continue & should he return again to this Province I will endeavour to see him & if I should think him deserving I will not fail to communicate my Sentiments to You concerning him. Tho by the Proclamation that was issued on the 26th Dec.
