

my. That fall down the River were seen more than 30 miles below Fort Du Quense, by the four Indians abovementioned. Your App will receive, by the Orders which the General gave ~~out~~^{out} the Army that he has sent a hundred of the Maryland Soldiers to Garrison Fort.
Cumberland, I presume, that our Assembly will, at least agree to support that Number. But if he has proceeded on his supposition, I am much afraid he will be disappointed, that Fort Cumberland will be soon evacuated, for the Gentlemen of the Lower House are still determined to adhere to their Adjustment Bill; which I am told will be presented to the Upper House, in two or three Days. The General having thought fit to leave it to me, to dispose of the Rest of the Maryland Troops, I have ordered them to repair to his Place, where they will be ready to be disbanded if no supplies are granted, or to receive their Arrears of Pay & be discharged if the Assembly shall prevail on, to raise Money at this time for that purpose.

Copy of the ^{to} Letter to Mr. Calvert dated at Annapolis the 1st of Decem: 1750 & transmitted by Capt. H. Sargent

S: Since I wrote to you, the ^{to} first Mr. B. Digworth who had the command of the Maryland Troops is come hither from the Ohio brings us the agreeable account that His Majesty's Forces under the command of General Forbes took Possession of Fort Du Quense the 23rd of Novem: two Days after Mons: Deligny's with his Garrison of 500 men had abandoned it. Before they went off they set fire to all the Barracks in the Fort & Outworks & all the Houses that had been built near it. They likewise demolished a Bastion & Part of two Buildings of the Fort by blowing up their grand Magazine of Powder. On
