

27

Indians more dependant than they have lately been on their for Necessaries. Ever since the Reduction of Fort Du Quirne, our People have been very quiet & I flatter myself that if this Campaign proves a successful one all the People that had abandoned their Habitations in Frederick County, will again return home. By one Capt Brooke that is about to sail from Gloucester County for London you'll receive a particular Answer to Your Letter & a more circumstantial account of every Thing that has passed since I last wrote, to my Letter by him. I therefore beg Leave to refer You, & am with my Duty to this Dr Sir

Copy of 79th Letter to Mr Calvert. Dated the 10 April 1750. from [unclear]

A Person who is just come over from Col: Loyds, tells me that Capt Brooke whom I mentioned to You in the Letter I sent Yesterday by the Packett has already loaded his Ship & will certainly sail next Sunday Morning, for which I am sorry because it really puts it out of my Power to give so full an Answer to some Parts of Your Letter dated the 27th of Nov: as I intended & particularly to that Part of it where You mention Col: Loyds having complained of the Remission of Mess^{rs} Rezin & Hedges late Farmers of Thent & Cecil Counties & of Mr Milligan the present Sheriff & Farmer of Cecil not only for Remission & but also for insulting the Agent because he pressed him to do his Duty. At present I shall only say that if Mess^{rs} Hedges & Rezin (the last of whom was appointed in Consequence of Col: Loyds Application) have not been yet compelled to account for the Bonds they formed Col: Loyd must be much to blame for it is long since I intimated to him that I was much surprized he delayed to put their Bonds in Suit & I cannot tell why he should have so long declined to do so unless he is desirous of always having some Excuse for not settling his own Accounts, & with respect to Mr Milligan to whom I have wrote on the Subject of Col: Loyds Complaint against him, I am inclin'd to think that no Farmer ever made his Payments earlier than he has done, but