

Copy of a Farmers Bond, but as this Proceeding (I mean the taking ing Articles & taking Bond from the Farmers) is regular & does not vary & I do not imagine it would give Your L<sup>ty</sup> any satisfaction to have Copies of all that are executed transmitted to You. If the Agent who ever he may be, will discharge his Duty as he ought I am of Opinion that he will be under a Necessity of keeping an exceeding good & trusty Clerk, such a one cannot in this Place where every thing is extremely dear be hired for less than £100 a Year & possibly the Agent must in Order to bring Matters the sooner under proper Regulation let him have for some time an Assistant; what the Agents Income might annu-ibus Annis be estimated at I do not know but presume it will well afford such Disbursements. In case Your L<sup>ty</sup> should not think proper to choose Your Agent from among the Members that are already of the Council I do not for my own part know any Objecti-on that would lye against the Gentleman whom in my Letter of the 27th of March last I took the Liberty to recommend to the next seat that might become vacant at that Board, unless this might be deemed one, that he has hitherto resided with Me. in the Character & manner I mentioned to Your L<sup>ty</sup> in that Letter. If it should be thought that this is a Place of great Consequence for one that has never been em-ployed by Your L<sup>ty</sup> in one of less Importance, I can only say that that has been his Misfortune. I have more than once expressed an earnest Desire to have it in my Power to bestow one on him & to convince him as well as the Gentlemen of the Province how
