Lordship shall be pleased to confer on him the other Office You mention I hope You will favour him so far as to approve of his Continuance in this.
I am much pleased that Your Lop approves of what I took the Liberty to write the 23 of May last concerning a Method which I think ought to be pursued by such Person as may be entrusted with the Management of Your Lop's pecuniary Affairs here I am much obliged to Your Lop for the Regard You are pleased to shew to my Recommendation. Encouraged by Your Lop's favourable Acceptance of what I have already offered on this Matter I will as soon as a Prorogation of the Assembly shall give me leisure, consider of; ~~draw~~ draw up, & take the Liberty to transmit to Your Lop such Instructions as in my Opinion it would be expedient for Your Lop to give to the Agent & to Myself in order that the plan might be effectually carried into Execution, & as the first Article will be that the Agent shall reside in this City or at least so near as that he might often attend & see that every thing is regularly & punctually transacted (the Necessity of which might be set forth in such Instruction) I do not think it improbable that Col^o Lloyd will willingly resign & then he can have no Pretence for Murmuring, as I have wrote in the fullest manner to Mr Calvert in relation to the Alienation Fines desiring him to submit the same to Your Lop's Consideration I will not trouble Your Lop by repeating here what I have said to him on that Subject, but I beg leave to inform Your Lop that there never hath been since the Country was settled any Money paid by the Keepers of Ferries in this Province for Leave or Licence to keep them Most of the Ferries over the Rivers in this Province are supported by the Keepers of them paid by an Allowance made them every Year by the County Levy, & those who are not so paid demand & receive from Passengers such Rates as they have themselves settled. I perceive that in
