a quantity of good Land so large as four or five thousand Acres together not being at this time to be found vacant on this side the Allegany Mountain What You have now wrote relative thereto shall be communicated to the Board of Officers as soon as they can conveniently come together. I shall send You inclosed Drafts of such Instructions as they at some past Meeting thought it might be proper to give to the several Officers any ways concerned with His Ld's Revenue; if on Consideration of them they should be thought imperfect or any of them improper You or Mr Jordan as Supervisor & I will I presume communicate to the Board His Ld's or Your own Sentiments thereon. [I am glad to find His Ld's approved of my inducting the Rev^d Mr Edmiston into this Parish & Mr Hughs into that of Coventry, for some time the People there seemed to acquiesce as thought they would drop all Pretensions to the Right of Presentation but Mr Hughs tells Me some of them broke out again about three Weeks ago declaring they would have a new Parson of their own choosing since they were to have a new Governor & actually went in a Body to his House in order to compel him had he been at home to abjure the Parish. The Provincial Court being sitting I desired the Attorney General to move for leave to file an Information against the King Leaders & I have struck out of the Commission a Justice of Peace in Worcester County that was represented to have countenanced the Rioters. You know I presume before this time that the Publication which began on Mr W Dulany's refusing to Vote for Mr Allens holding two Parishes were by no means dropt on his being inducted into that of All Saints. I transmitted You the 22 of June One of the Hand Bills he had printed & distributed on his Return from that Parish. While he was at Phil^a he published a small Pamphlet under the Title of An Appeal to his new Parishioners of which I doubt not he sent You a Copy, about the same time a Piece was published here against him at the Request of as he is said of One of the Parishioners giving a different Account from what he had done of the Riot at Frederick Town & laying the whole Blame at his own Door, to this he replied in the Pennsylvania Chronicle & expressly accused Mr Dulany of exciting the Mob against him but when on his Return hither I intimated to him that if he could prove that Jack
