

inclined to have a Lamp shirt or two of them, they are of the same kind of N<sup>o</sup>. 136. linen with which we furnished some of the Gent. last year. The worsted Stockings, such of the Thread as are fit, the Brittanic, the Russia Drill and Serge Denim, are designed for the Officers. We wish we could find them a better supply, we have some Russia sheeting and have desired a considerable further quantity to be purchased: the Swanskin may be delivered out to such of the Officers as want it for jackets & breeches.

It will be very troublesome and inconvenient to get the Clothier General to price the goods, especially as we are obliged to send them in small quantities. We shall therefore endeavour to get the Assembly to fix at once the Proportion of the last to be sent and, as it is designed that the Officers shall have of the Cloathing for their respective use only we expect the goods will be very low priced.

We have expected for a good while past to hear that the Cloathing from Kent County had reached you and shall write to Mr. Forman on the Subject. You'll send us an Account as soon as you can, of the quantities <sup>of Cloathing received</sup> delivered and what yet is deficient. <sup>the price will not be so material, the Quantities</sup>

Sir
137. Capt. Joshua Miles informs us that he has seven Recruits of the Sixth Regiment, who want Cloathing. If you have not sent away what you have collected, deliver to each, one Blanket, a Coat, Jacket and pair of Breeches, two shirts two pair of Stockings and a Pair of Shoes and reserve also enough to fit out half a Dozen Recruits more, in the same Manner, to whom, on their being enlisted, deliver them taking Receipts from their Officers and returning the Cloathing delivered in your Account.

Sir
138. We shall take care to send you some Money by the first good Opportunity.
Charles Sanddale is sick and a stranger rider for him, so that it is proper to send it by the Post. The Quantity of Bacon you have sent, though not very great, will help. We have lately received a pretty strong Reinforcement of Shoes and Stockings, so that you need not go to any strange Price for the immediate bringing yours up.
