

efficacious, would have been used to extricate them. We are exceedingly ~~hast~~ that you should esteem the Seizure of the Slave allowed to be purchased No. 6. as ~~hast~~ a Violation of our Engagement when the pressing Wants of the Army urged the General Assembly to it and when too, we informed your Excellency that it would not be used, if those Wants could be otherwise relieved, but that it should be restored to Mr. Smith and Permission given for the Exportation of it as soon as Congress or his Excellency Genl. Washington assured us that the Distresses of the Army caused to be alarming. It gives us pain to repeat the Information we communicated in our last that our Power is so circumscribed and limited, that we cannot, without committing a manifest Infringement of our Constitution and acting inconfidently with the Trust delegated to us, suspend the Law, until we have Assurances from Congress or General Washington; that the Army is supplied. The Recommendation of Congress, to restore the Slave, has been received, but that cannot give us Authority to do it; because, at the same time, we were informed by them to that the Wants of the Army were pressing and require immediate Relief.
No Inconveniences have, as yet, we apprehend, arisen from the Seizure, and as the Obstruction to the Navigation still remains, we flatter ourselves it will be in our Power to obviate any; to that End, as well as with a View of removing every cause of Uneasiness or Disgust, we have called a Meeting of the General Assembly, the Second Day of March next in Order to submit to their Consideration, your Excellency's Letters and the whole Proceedings of the Commissioners, and we have no Doubt but that the Result of their Deliberations will be highly satisfactory to your Excellency. We cannot refrain from expressing our Disapprobation of the conduct of Mr. Smith, in respecting the Officers appointed to carry the Law into Execution. Whatever his ments might be respecting the Propriety of it, we think, an Attempt in any Individual to trample on the Authority of the State and to frustrate its Acts, ought not to escape without Punishment. It is not in our Power at this Time to point out any Species of Misconduct in Mr. Smith, or others employed under him in the Purchase of Slave and Wheat, but as soon as we make any Discovery of male Practices, we shall impart them that your Excellency may take proper Precautions to prevent a Repetition.

His Excellency

The Chev. & Delatuzone.

In Council Annapolis 18th Feb<sup>r</sup> 1780

Gentlemen:

In the Execution of the Law to procure an immediate Supply of, we have been embarrassed, but nothing has given us more Uneasiness than the idea that the conduct of our State, in seizing the French Slave, may, possibly be imputed to some Motive different from that of relieving the alarming Distresses of the Army, which has rendered us the more desirous that you should converse with the Minister of France and explain the whole of this Business. We would have him convinced of our firm Attachment to the Alliance, our Desire to promote the Interest of France and facilitate the Operation of their Fleets and Armies, and to supply them with the Means of Subsistence; and that Nothing but the most urgent and pressing Necessity could have constrained us to subject the Slave to Seizure; that we wish to have, from Congress, an Assurance that the Army is supplied, on which Event, we shall be compelled to order
