

Sir, In Council, 15th June, 1781. 192

557. Yours of the 13th Instant is received, your brother has made us an offer of Grogram, Dawks, Cynalings and Fell Hatts which we have referred to you they are such Articles as are wanting for the Army, you will have all the Goods immediately collected and sent to this Place to be delivered to Mr John Meir Comptroller of Stores.

William Flagott Esq.

Sir, In Council, 16th June, 1781.

558. By the last Accounts from Virginia the Enemy were moving Southwardly which indicates no immediate Intention of invading this State. We therefore countermand the marching Orders issued for the Troop of Hous of your County, and have no Doubt but they will exert themselves in getting every necessary Accomment and in perfecting themselves for the Field, as it is quite uncertain at what Hour their Services will be required.

Lieutenant of Kent County.

Sir, In Council, 16th June, 1781.

559. Complaints have been made to us by Thomas Grason commanding Officer of the Barge Revenge that James Ray Robert Boyd and another Person belonging to the said Barge are confined in the Guard House by Order of some of our Officers we therefore request Inquiry may be immediately made into the Cause of such extraordinary and unwarrantable Proceedings and that Men released from such Confinement.

Genl Smallwood.

Sir, In Council, 16th June, 1781.
