Sir In Council, 23^d June, 1781.

Enclosed you have the Act entitled "an Act to raise two Battalions N^o 580 of Militia for reinforcing the continental Army, and to compleat the Number of select Militia: we request your particular and immediate Attention to the last Clause of the said Act.

Circular to the Lieutenants.

Sir In Council, 23^d June, 1781.

Yours of the 20th we received, and have sent the Camp Kettles with the regulations for the Government of the Militia, which in actual Ser-581 vice to Capt. Moore, we have given him our Opinion that it will be proper to have the Horses valued, that in case of His full Satisfaction may be made for them.

Matthew Ridley Esq^r

Sir In Council, 23^d June, 1781.

You were so obliging as to promise some camp kettles for the Horse at George Town ordered to reinforce the Marquis Bayette, we 582 have employed the Bearer George Adams to carry them and will take it as a favor if you will order eight to be delivered to them.

Genl. Smallwood.

Sir In Council, 23^d June, 1781.

You will deliver to Col^l. Hallingworth the Waggon and Team which you procured for the Public some time ago, and which was 583 refused to be received, the general Assembly by their Resolution of the 10th Instant, having directed them to be received.

M^r. Abram Paleover.

Sir In Council, 25th June, 1781.

You will deliver to Genl. Smallwood or his Order, such floath-584 ing and Shoes as he may think proper to draw for the Soldiers in the continental Army.

John Muir Esq^r
